Rosh hashanah recipe

Crepes stuffed with apples - pareve

Source: What's Cooking by Barbara Pezaro

Crepes

Make a batch of 6* crepes using whatever recipe you prefer, cooked both sides.

Filling:

4 or 5 large cooking apples
6 tablespoons apricot jam
Grated rind of 2 lemons
4 tablespoons sugar
Grated rind of 1 orange
Juice of 1 lemon and 1 orange
1/2 cup water
Toasted almonds (optional)

Skin, core and cut the apples in thick slices. Put in a saucepan with 3 tablespoons jam, the grated rind of 1 lemon and 1 tablespoon sugar. Cook slowly until soft. Place a spoonful of filling on each crepe and roll up (don't fold sides in as you would for a blintze). Arrange the rolls in a single layer in a greased ovenproof serving dish. In a saucepan, place the grated rind of 1 orange, 1 lemon, the juice of both orange and lemon, 3 tablespoons jam, 3 tablespoons sugar and 1/2 cup water. Cook till a syrupy consistency, pour over the crepes, reheat in the oven and serve warm, sprinkled with the toasted almonds if desired.

Oh! What a knight

A knight in Scotland was supposed to kneel before the Queen and recite a sentence in Latin. Comes his turn, Sir Gadabout knelt, the Queen tapped him on the shoulders with the sword ... and in the panic of excitement of the moment, he forgets the Latin line he was to recite. Thinking quickly, he recites the only other line he knows in a foreign language, which he remembers from the Passover Seder: "Mah nishtana ha-lailah ha-zeh mi-kol ha-leilot." The puzzled Queen turns to her advisers and asks: "Why is this knight different from all other knights?"
