Pesach, Inch House

We have had our annual Seder at Inch House and our busiest. Rabbi Pete came through to Edinburgh too officiate at the Seder. It was co-ordinate by Gillian Raab who having organized the previous Seders has it down to a fine art. Thanks again Gillian and all the others who helped. The new Haggadah, which Rabbi Pete brought through with him, made sure it was a Seder with full participation. After the wonderful spread of food it was then back to the singing and story plus not a few questions and answers. It was nice to see so many new faces and from as far away as America. It was a wonderful evening and a lovely way to spend Pesach, we do hope you felt so too. PS... Thank you to the rock band upstairs.

Jewish mothers bargain with God

One day a Jewish Mother and her 8-year-old daughter were walking along the beach, just at the water's edge. Suddenly, a GIGANTIC wave flashed up on the beach, sweeping the little girl out to sea. "Oh, G-d," lamented the mother, turning her face toward heaven and shaking her fist. "This was my ONLY baby. I can't have more children. She is the love and joy of my life. I have cherished every day that she's been with me. Give her back to me, and I'll go to the synagogue every day for the rest of my life!!!! Suddenly, another GIGANTIC wave flashed up and deposited the girl back on the sand. The mother looked up to heaven and said, "She had on a HAT!!!!!"

Springtime Cucumber Soup

4 English-style cucumbers
5 cloves of garlic
1 cup (1/4 liter) sour cream
1 cup (1/4 liter) plain yogurt
3 Tbls fresh dill weed

Seed and finely dice the cucumbers. (Since the English-style cucumbers are not waxed, it is ok to eat the skin and people who normally can't tolerate cucumbers are more likely to be able to tolerate this soup.) Then blend together all the ingredients until smooth and chill for at least one hour.

Service / Lunch / Study

We had our first S.L.S of the year and Rabbi Pete came through from Glasgow to take both the service and study. There was also a lovely spread of food followed by a group discussion on the current situation in Israel. This was in place of the arranged talk on Peasch. Thank you to all who came along and look forward to seeing you at the next S.L.S in June.

Is there any would be Rabbi in our midst? Here is your chance.
